

With LOTS of help
from members of Ye
Olde Rocket Forum

Rockets in Entertainment

Bill Cooke
HARA Meeting
2015 May 7

In the Movies...

Space Warriors (2013)

Estes Bullpup

The World is Not Enough (1999)

October Sky (1999)

Ky Michaelson – Rocketman
Enterprises

Star Trek: Generations (1994)

Soren's rocket – designed by PML
(Paramount refused to allow a kit)

Delta Force (1986)

Estes Honest John

Megaforce (1982)

Flight Systems Incorporated (FSI) – Harold Reese

Other appearances

- 0 Fifth Element – Centuri Magnum Hornet (rotating AAA launcher)
- 0 Fifth Element – Estes Bullpup (launched from shield)
- 0 Road Warrior – FSI Black Brant II (launched from dune buggies)
- 0 Red Dawn (1984) – RPGs made by FSI
- 0 Rambo 2 – RPGs made by FSI
- 0 Amazing Grace and Chuck – Aerotech powered scratch build
- 0 True Lies – Estes Bullpup (rpg fired by baddie)

In Television...

CENTURI'S ROCKETS ASSIST SPIES FROM U.N.C.L.E.

NCER AND CAR BUILDER GENE WINFIELD

PhoenixAMT
Division,

radar tracking screen, and an infra-red television system. All this -- and a fantas-

The Man from U.N.C.L.E (1969)

Designed by Centuri
Engineering

Emergency! (1972)

“The Fuzz Lady”

Estes Saturn V (injured grandfather)

Emergency! (1974)

“Family Ties”

Estes Pershing Maxi Brute, Centuri F-16 in package

Wonder Woman (1978)

"The Murderous Missile"
Estes Pershing Maxi Brute

Airwolf (1984)

“Firestorm”

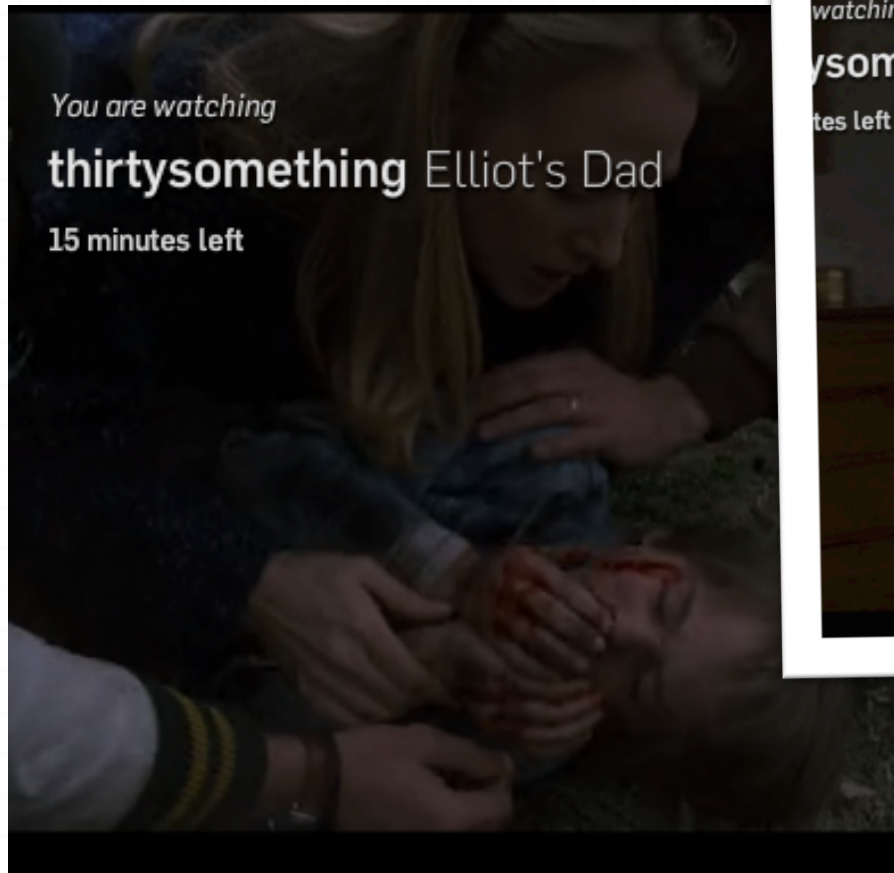

Modified Estes Saturn V

Diff'rent Strokes (1985)

“Russian Embassy”

Estes Maxi Alpha 3

Thirtysomething (1987)

“Ethan’s Dad”

Modified Estes Saturn V (NAR very upset over this episode)

Family Matters (1990)

“The Science Project”

Cox Saturn 1B (Urkel accidentally launches into ceiling)